Computer Science

The SDSU Computer Science Club provides free computer science tutoring to any student. Tutors directly provide support for classes CSC 150 and CSC 250. Generally, tutors will help with any question they can. Schedules are posted at <http://www.csc.sdstate.edu/tutoring.htm>

Engineering

Pi Tau Sigma members offer free tutoring on Mondays and Thursdays from 2:00 - 3:00 p.m. and Wednesdays and Fridays from 11:00 a.m. - 12:00 p.m. in CEH 221A. Tutoring is available in most lower level courses that engineers must take, and is commonly requested in Statics, Dynamics, Physics, and Fluid Mechanics. Look for additional changes on the schedule posted outside the room.

Math

Free walk-in tutoring is available to students in the Math Help Center. The service is available for most 100-level math courses. See schedule below.

Harding Hall Room 128: Monday – Thursday from 9:00 a.m. – 7:00 p.m.
Friday 9:00 a.m. – 12:00 p.m.

For help via email: sdsunmathhelp@live.com Tutors will answer e-mail when possible during regular MHC hours, when not helping students in the MHC. Do not expect an immediate reply to your e-mail

The math department also keeps a list of students who are interested in tutoring for a fee. To view this list, visit Linda Wendt in Harding Hall 100.

Modern Languages

SPANISH ROUND-TABLE: Conversation (all levels) / Advanced Homework Help. T.A.s. will be offering weekly sessions in which students from any level can practice their conversation skills and advanced students (Span 340 and above) can seek help for homework doubts and difficulties.

Spanish Round-Table, Modern Languages Library, SNF 104

Mondays, 2:30- 3:30 p.m.

Wednesdays, 2:30-4:30 p.m.

Thursdays, 3:00-4:00 p.m.

Fridays, 9:00-11:00 a.m.

Physics

Contact Hours: In addition to the regular lecture and laboratory time for the course, there is a contact hour on either Tuesday or Thursday (depending on what course/section students are registered in) for the students to attend. Some instructors require attendance. This contact hour is scheduled as part of their lab course in the schedule book and on WebAdvisor; students should have the time free on their schedules.

Tutoring: Graduate students will be offering tutoring at no charge. Days and times are posted outside of labs and Crothers Engineering 314.

Sociology

Walk in tutoring/help sessions are held on Wednesday from 6:00-7:00 p.m. in Scobey Hall Room 213. Assistance is available for most SOC and CJUS courses. Students are encouraged to call 688-4132 to schedule an appointment. Students should bring their textbook and course syllabus to tutoring.
